

K-Love is the only station we listen to. We don't have to worry about our kids listening to something they shouldn't be.

It is such an encouraging station that ministers to the mind, body & spirit. K-love provides a ministry of support to the local community as well as the nation. please ensure that we can continue to have this station on in our area.